Chef Aaron Barnett, the mastermind behind The Country Cat, has dedicated his culinary journey to unearthing and honoring the flavors that have shaped the region's gastronomic tapestry. His menu features an exquisite array of heritage recipes, lovingly passed down through generations of local families and culinary artisans.

Farm-to-Table Delights

Sustainability and a profound connection to the land are at the core of The Country Cat's culinary philosophy. Chef Barnett sources the freshest ingredients from local farmers and purveyors, ensuring that each dish is infused with the vibrant flavors of the Northwest's bountiful harvests.

From succulent berries handpicked from nearby orchards to line-caught salmon from Oregon's pristine waters, every ingredient reflects a deep respect for the region's agricultural heritage. By partnering with local producers, The Country Cat not only supports the community but also celebrates the delectable bounty that this fertile land has to offer.

Timeless Treasures

The heart of The Country Cat's culinary artistry lies in its unwavering commitment to heritage recipes. Chef Barnett has meticulously researched and collected these culinary gems, each one a testament to the region's rich culinary traditions.

The menu changes with the seasons, reflecting the natural rhythms of the Northwest's agricultural heritage. In the winter months, hearty stews and braises warm the soul, while in the spring, vibrant salads and fresh seafood dishes showcase the abundance of the season.

A Culinary Renaissance

While honoring the past, The Country Cat isn't afraid to innovate. Chef Barnett approaches heritage recipes with a modern sensibility, infusing them with creative flair and contemporary techniques.

Classic dishes like the Pike Place Chowder are reimagined with the addition of locally caught halibut and a hint of smoked paprika. The Country Cat's signature razor clam rigatoni combines the briny flavors of the sea with the richness of Italian pasta.
